An Unusual Purchase of Fine Axminster Rugs

IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS SPECIAL OFFERING.

Upon examination of the quality and patterns of these rugs it will be easy for one to see that they were never intended to be sold at these remarkably low prices.

We purchased them from a manufacturer noted for the high quality of his productions, and the price of securing was so low that we are enabled to offer the exceptional concessions to our patrons. You can rest assured that these Rugs are thoroughly dependable, else we would not be offering them at any price. Among the patterns and colorings the choice is worthy and varied.

Fourth floor—Eleventh.

Sale of Ostermoor Mattresses, $11.00

Regularly $15.00, $16.50, and $18.50.

In this lot are eight styles of tickings and four sizes—3 ft., 3 ft. 6 in., 4 ft. and 4 ft. 6 in.

Ostermoor Mattresses need no introduction to our patrons; they have been sold by us for a number of years—they are, without a doubt, the most famous and widely known make in this country.

The grades offered in this sale are regularly catalogued at $15.00, $16.50 and $18.50. They are fully worth these prices, the only difference is that they have very slight imperfections in the ticking—so small that in many cases they cannot be detected—and in no instance will their service suffer in the least.

Special price, $11.00 for choice of any of the four sizes and eight styles of tickings.

Fourth floor—45 ft.

Sale of Damask Napkins, Regular $3.75 Quality—$3.00 Dozen.

This is one of our fine Housekeeping Specials now being featured in anticipation of the needs of the housewife at this season of the year.

Made of fine heavy, full-bleached damask, of superior Scotch weave, in the practical 24-inch size and five new designs.

A most excellent value,
$3.00 dozen. Worth $3.75.

Fourth floor—45 ft.

PHILIPP SCHEIDEMANN MAY BE HEARD HERE

Efforts Being Made to Bring German Socialist Leader to This City.

If the German branch of the Socialist party of this city is successful in its efforts Philipp Scheidemann, one of the most influential members of the Socialist party in the German Reichstag, will speak in this city in the near future. He will discuss Socialism and affiliated subjects, and also will tell his American sympathizers how to carry on the propaganda in this country.

Philipp Scheidemann, one of the Socialist members of the German Reichstag, who share now the power once wielded by August Bebel alone, is the last man one would take for a leader of the so-called revolutionary wing of the party which is making a turbulent demand for the Prussian franchise rights.

In general, Herr Scheidemann admits that his mission is not so much to teach Socialist principles as to learn what he can from the progress made by his comrades in the United States.

The German Socialist leader was brought to this country by the German language group of the Socialist party, which has charge of the propaganda work in that language. He found that the committee looking after him had completely filled the days of his visit with speaking engagements, which will take him on his way west as Denver, and hardly allow him time to get back to Berlin for the opening of the Reichstag, November 11.

CONDEMNATION CASES HEARD.

Society Doings in and Around The National Capital

President Home Again

The President returned last night from Mobile, Ala., and joined Mrs. Wilson at the White House.

Miss Wilson, Miss Jessie Wilson, Miss Eleanor Wilson, and Miss Helen Woodrow Wilson occupied a box at the Belasco Theater last night.

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane, who postponed their trip to New York so that Mrs. Lane could attend Mrs. Woodrow Wilson's luncheon at the White House Monday, left Washington yesterday and will spend several days in New York.

Mr. William G. McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury, is now receiving congratulations on being a grandfather, a daughter having been born to his daughter, Mrs. Charles Taber Martin, of Prescott, Ariz.

The Superintendent of the Coast Survey and Mrs. O. H. Tittmann have returned to Washington from a three weeks' visit to Colburg and Rice Lake, Canada.

A more beautiful wedding has rarely been seen here than that of Miss Berenice Orme Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace McParlin Woodward, and Mr. Ralph Keemle, of Toronto, Canada, who were married last night in St. Anthony's Church, Brookland.

The ceremony was performed by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Shahan, assisted by the Rev. E. A. Pace, of the Catholic University; the Rev. T. D. Williams, pastor of St. Anthony's Church; and the Rev. A. M. Mark, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church.

The church was decorated for the occasion and a delightful musical program was rendered before and during the ceremony.

Miss Ethel Lee played the violin, and Miss Agnes Dowling was the organist. Mr. Boone and Mrs. Ella Latham sang the solos. The bride party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," and at the end of the ceremony Mendelssohn's wedding march was played.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She looked lovely in a gown of ivory satin brocade in silver and trimmed with tiny clusters of orange blossoms and rose point lace. Her veil was of the same exquisite lace, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Marie Woodward, maid of honor, wore a handsome gown of yellow crepe meteor trimmed in marquis lace, with a girle of blue panne velvet.

The bridesmaids were Miss Alma Keemle, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Rebecca Woodward, and Miss Mattie Piper. Their gowns were of yellow crepe meteor, and they wore short veils of tulle and carried directorate staffs decorated with Mrs. Aaron Ward roses and autumn leaves.

Mr. Ellis Payne, of Toronto, Canada, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Bradley Snow, of Toronto; Mr. Frank O'Donnell, of Wilmington, Del.; and Mr. Thomas Wilson, of Washington.

A small reception for the relatives and out-of-town guests was held at the bride's home after the ceremony. Later in the evening the bride and bridegroom left their wedding trip, the former wearing a blue tulle suit, with hat to match, and pointed fox fur.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Keemle and the Misses Keemle, from Canada, and Miss Sarah Maloy, of Philadelphia, Pa.

The dancing contingent in Washington society wended its way last night to Fort Myer, Va., to attend the informal hop which was given by the officers of the post.

The guests were received by Mrs. Joseph Garrard, wife of the commandant, assisted by the officers of the hop committee.

A number of suppers followed the dance, among those who entertained guests being Col. and Mrs. Garrard, and Lieut. and Mrs. Simpson.

Mrs. William Hayward will give a dance at her hospitable home in I Street on Monday evening, December 2.

Mr. and Mrs. George Myers have returned to Washington for the winter.

Miss Nancy Johnson, who has been visiting friends in Kentucky, will join her parents, Representative and Mrs. Ben Johnson, here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Horning, of Washington, were the guests over the week-end of Mrs. George B. Magoun in the Green Spring Valley, Md. Mr. and Mrs. Horning, the former a brother-in-law of former President Taft, called to the valley leaving Washington on Friday morning and spending the night at Edinboro City, continuing their walk to the valley on Saturday morning. They returned to Washington by train Monday night.

Mr. Henry White, former American Ambassador to France and Mrs. Henry White have gone to New York, and are spending a few days at the Ritz-Carlton.

Mr. John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union, who is in Mobile, Ala., attending the sessions of the Southern Commercial Congress yesterday authorized a denial of the rumor of his engagement to Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh reported in dispatches from New York.

Mrs. Arthur Grant-Duff, of Dresden, Germany, formerly Miss Kathleen Clayton, daughter of Gen. Powell Clayton, and sister of Harwood Clayton, whose husband was one time Minister to this country from Belgium, has arrived in the Capital to visit members of her family.

Fourth floor—45 ft.

Harriet Gatewood, and Miss Beatrice Crawford, of the Theological Seminary, Virginia, as bridesmaids; Lieut. John Marvin Wright, best man, and Lieut. Frank C. Heston, Lieut. Beverly C. Dunn, Lieut. H. S. Bennion, Lieut. R. C. Crawford, and Lieut. E. B. Ardery, all of the Engineer Corps, ushers.

Picil-Duval

A beautiful wedding took place last night at 8 o'clock in the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church when Miss Marjorie Duval, daughter of Mrs. A. B. Duval, and Mr. Walter George Picil, of Pasadena, N. J., were married. The ceremony was performed by the rector of the church, the Rev. James C. Montgomery.

The interior of the church was abloom with clusters of golden and white chrysanthemums and palms.

The bride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her brother, Mr. A. B. Duval, wore a handsome gown of white crepe satin draped with a stylish blue tulle veil and a hat of crepe velvet. They will make their home in Pasadena, N. J.

A small and informal reception at the home of the bride's mother followed the church ceremony. The rooms were artistically decorated with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums, and refreshments were served during the evening.

Mrs. A. B. Duval wore a handsome costume of black net over satin. Later on the bride and groom left Washington on their trip, the former wearing a stylish blue tulle suit and a hat of crepe velvet. They will make their home in Pasadena, N. J.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. Carl Picil, of Pasadena, N. J., mother of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Goldsmith, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Former Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Truman H. Newberry are in New York stopping at the Plaza.

Plans for Wedding

The marriage of Miss May Williams and Mr. Gen. William C. Crozier, U. S. A., Chief of Ordnance, will take place on Friday at St. George's, Hanover Square, London.

Mr. William Williams, a brother of the bride-elect, formerly United States Commissioner of Immigration, arrived Monday at Philadelphia, about the Maryland, in order to attend the wedding.

The marriage of Miss Mary Lodge McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. McKee, and the daughter of President Benjamin Harrison, and Mr. Curt Reisinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Reisinger, will take place Saturday afternoon, November 15, in the Central Presbyterian Church, New York City.

Miss McKee's only attendant will be Mrs. Lowry Gillett, and Mr. Walter Reisinger will be his brother's best man. Only relatives and intimate friends will witness the ceremony.

The officers and ladies of the Washington barracks have sent out cards for a reception and dance, Friday evening, November 7, 7:30, at the Officers' Club at the post, in honor of Col. and Mrs. Kuhn. Col. Kuhn has recently taken up the duties of his new detail as commandant of the barracks.

Among the passengers sailing on the steamship Kronprinz Wilhelm yesterday from New York for English and German ports were Representative and Mrs. Charles L. Bartlett.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. George F. Downer, who have given up their home, and guests at the Ritz-Carlton, are leaving for New York City, where they will spend the winter.

Capt. de Bertier de Sauvigny, who was appointed military attaché of the embassy here, to succeed Count de Chamsin, who just retired from the post for active duty in France, will arrive in Washington about December 1.

Mrs. Edwin M. Stanton has given up her apartment in the Ritz-Carlton, and is leaving for New York yesterday to spend the winter in Italy.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was celebrated last night at 8 o'clock in the Sixth Street Presbyterian Church, when Miss Helen Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard F. Thompson, and Mr. Heide Odin H. Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Murray, were married.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. H. Heston, rector of the church, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends of the bride and bridegroom.

The interior of the church was charmingly decorated with chrysanthemums, roses, Southern smilax, and palms. Mrs. Frank Byron played the wedding music.

The pretty bride, who was escorted and given away by her father, wore a beautiful gown of white satin draped with Chantilly lace. Her tulle veil was arranged with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Joseph Stephenson was matron of honor, and she was gown in pink brocade crepe de chine, with a blue chiffon tulle and trimmed with princess lace. She carried an armful of white roses.

The maid of honor was Miss Gathell, and the bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Thompson, cousin of the bride; Miss Kathleen Desmond; Miss Barbara Wiesand; and Miss Christine Hornum. Two of the bridesmaids wore blue brocade crepe de chine with wide pink ribbons and princess lace berthes, while the others had an pink brocade, crepe de chine, with blue girles and lace berthes. They all carried white roses.

The bride's little sister, Miss Lola Thompson, was flower girl, and her brother was accompanied by a girl covered with shadow lace and trimmed with touches of blue ribbon. She carried a bouquet of flowers.
